

Association for German Studies in Great Britain and Ireland

AGS Conference Grant and Workshop Awards Scheme: Application Form

Grants of up to £800 are available for those organising conferences, workshops or seminars in any area of German Studies in the UK or Ireland. The applicant must have been fully paid-up member of AGS for at least three months at the date of application. For further details see www.ags.ac.uk

Applicant Name:
Institution:
Correspondence and e-mail address:
Since when have you been a member of the Association for German Studies?
1. Title, date and nature of the proposed event (including expected attendance):
2. Draft budget
(a) Expenditure
Item	Amount
Speakers

Catering / Accommodation (per delegate, per day)
Room / Equipment Hire
Administrative costs (please specify)
Printing and Publicity
Other (please specify)
Total expenditure	£

(b) Income

Item	Amount
Fees
Full Delegate Fee £ <input type="text"/> No. of delegates at full fee (projected) <input type="text"/>
Total income from full delegate fees	£
Reduced fee £ <input type="text"/> No. of delegates at reduced fee (projected) <input type="text"/>
Total income from reduced delegate fees	£
Grants from other sources (please specify)
Other
Total income	£

Details of grant requested from the Association for German Studies

Item	Total Amount
Speakers' travel (please give name of speaker(s), travel

details and fares)
Speakers' accommodation (please give name of speaker(s), no. of nights at conference, and cost per night)
Speakers' maintenance (please give name of speaker, no. of days at conference, and cost per day)
Administrative expenses (please specify)
Other (please specify)
Total grant requested	£

4. Please state how the bid would serve to disseminate research and/or pedagogic practice in the broadly defined field of German Studies

5. Signature of applicant to confirm an undertaking to abide by the conditions of the award, if successful

Completed application forms should be sent electronically to Nicola.McLelland@nottingham.ac.uk